

PRIVACY STATEMENT

It has been the longstanding policy of Hooper Holmes, Inc., d/b/a Portamedic & Infolink (hereafter "the Company"), to hold in the strictest confidence, all information provided to the Company by its insurance company clients and their agents and applicants. The Company has never provided confidential information to any third party without the express written permission of its clients. Copies of reports prepared for clients and retained on file have always been deemed to be the client's property.

The Company agrees to maintain the confidentiality of any nonpublic personal information or protected health information ("Information") consistent with and as defined by the provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (Pub.L. 106-102, 15 U.S.C. 6802-3) ("GLB"), Section 262 of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, P.L. 104-191 ("HIPAA") and applicable state law.

All Information obtained by the Company will be retained in secure locations for as short a period of time as is necessary to ensure the receipt of original reports by clients and the proper billing and payment for services rendered by the Company. All Information retained by the Company is considered the property of the Company's clients and will not be disclosed, in whole or in part, to any third party including, but not limited to, insurance agents and other clients, without the express written authorization of the client from or for whom the Information was obtained.

All employees of the Company and independent contractors who perform work for the Company, have agreed to hold all Information in the strictest confidence. Employees and independent contractors understand that their employment or contracts may be terminated for failure to abide by the Company's privacy policy.

Robert William Jewett
Senior Vice President,
General Counsel & Secretary